Overview: International Neural Network Society

Established in 1987 by the leading scientists in the Artificial Neural Networks (ANN) field

More than 1400 members across 52 countries

INNS is the premiere organization for individuals interested in a theoretical and computational understanding of the brain and applying that knowledge to develop new and more effective forms of machine intelligence.

Conferences

- International Joint Conference on Neural Networks (IJCNN)
  - Founded in 1987
  - Hosted by INNS every other year
  - Hosted with IEEE World Congress on Computational Intelligence (WCCI) in off-years

Save the Date: IJCNN 2025 (30 June – 5 July) Rome, Italy

Publications - Neural Networks Journal

- Editor-in-Chief: DeLiang Wang
- Co-Editors-in-Chief: Mauro Forti, Tongliang Liu, Taro Toyoizumi
- Submissions received
  - 5490 in 2024
  - 3494 in 2023
- Impact Factor
  - 6.0 in 2023
  - 7.8 in 2022

Awards

Donald O. Hebb Award

Hermann von Helmholtz Award

Dennis Gabor Award

Aharon Katzir Young Investigator Award

Ada Lovelace Meritorious Service Award

Education

- Doctoral Dissertation Award
- IJCNN Travel Grants
- IJCNN Mentoring Program
  - Doctoral Consortium
  - Paper Development Session
  - Mentoring Session
  - Career Development Session
  - Meet the Experts Event
